Bob Stanhope is a talented songwriter, singer, guitarist and comedian who has performed in clubs and coffeehouses in the Northeast for decades.

His more serious material feels a bit like Billy Joel, Harry Chapin or Peter, Paul and Mary. His comic side could be likened to Weird Al Yankovick or Tom Lehrer. This humorous side was nurtured during his many years during the '80s and '90s as the morning personality on a variety of suburban New York City radio stations.

Bob has performed several times at Jacob's Well and JesusFest. Please welcome him back and enjoy an evening of good tunes, good music and good news!
