

Carman tickets on-sale tonight, at local Christian bookstores, possibly at the door

Wow! We're kicking off JesusFest 2008 with a rare concert by global Christian artist Carman inside the Tolland High School Auditorium this coming Thursday, July 10 at 7 pm with musicians from Trinity Covenant and 50 members of the First Cathedral Gospel Choir! General admission tickets are still on sale for just $15. For details, visit www.JesusFestCT.org.

We're "morphing" JesusFest from a country fair into an urban block party here in downtown Rockville! In future years, we hope to expand into Talcott Park, Central Park, several downtown churches, and nearby streets. However, we're going to walk before we run. This year's JesusFest will be held inside Union Congregational Church next Saturday, July 12 from 12 noon to 6 pm. We'll feature Scarlet Fade alternative/indie music, East of Nashville blue grass and southern Gospel, Songs of Solomon reggae and Selfish Steam rock. Sponsorships are still available. See www.JesusFestCT.org for details.

TONIGHT'S FEATURE PRESENTATION:

Since the first Friday in July this year fell on Independence Day, we chose to host an "encore" presentation of the Life Action Singers from Buchanan, Michigan. They performed "live" at Ellington High School in 1996 and Rockville High School in 1999. While they are no longer touring America, their video message is still very relevant for us today—perhaps more so!

For over 230 years, America has stood as a shining fortress of freedom and Godly ideals. But are we now in the midst of moral decay that can lead to our own "self-destruction?" Are we living up to the vision and ideals proclaimed by our Founding Fathers? Let's ask the Lord to probe our hearts and bring us to personal and corporate revival!
